

TRAINING WORKSHOP ON “LEADERSHIP AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT” for women in Science, Technology and Research (STR)

Organized jointly by National Academy of Sciences of Sri Lanka (NASSL) and National Science Foundation of Sri Lanka (NSF) in collaboration with Sri Lankan Academy of Young Scientists (SLAYS)

23rd May 2017, 09.00am-4.30pm

At Hilton Colombo Residences, Colombo

Facilitator Profile

Geraldine (Geri) Richmond is the Presidential Chair in Science and Professor of Chemistry at the University of Oregon. She has served in leadership roles on many international, national and state governing and advisory boards. She is the founder and director of COACH, a grassroots organization that has been assisting in the advancement of women scientists around the globe.

Website: <http://richmondscience.uoregon.edu>

The workshop includes short presentations by the facilitator, small group discussions and experiential learning.

Outcomes: Participants will gain knowledge and skills on critical success factors in the following areas

- The Power of Persuasion
- The Art of Effective Negotiation
- Effective Leadership Skills

For: Early/mid-Career academics, Researchers & Administrators in STR of both genders

Register at

<https://goo.gl/forms/h7KVtZ5natuh52NT2>

Before 12.00noon 12th May 2017

Limited places are available !

For further information please see the attached program
For clarifications email to NASSL nassl@sltnet.lk